SPRING 2013 COURSE!

"Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge."
 Proverbs 23:12 (NIV)

HU 807 Hearing the Voice of God

If you are one of His sheep, then Jesus is speaking to you and you are hearing His voice! The problem is that we have not learned how to identify His voice and differentiate it from all of the other thoughts that bombard our hearts and minds. This course will incorporate Mark Virkler's teaching on the four keys to hearing God's voice from the 'Communicating with God' seminar scheduled for February 8-10. The class is led by Stephanie Watkins at 9:30 am.

HU 506 Travelling Light

WE all lug loads we were never intended to carry. Fear. Worry. Discontent. No wonder we get so weary. We're worn out from carrying that excess baggage. Max Lucado walks us through the twenty-third Psalm and teaches us how to leave our excess luggage behind. This class is led by Max and Leanna Garrett at 9:30 am.

HU 106 Basic Christianity

How can I be sure of my salvation? How do I gain victory over temptation? How can I be filled with the Holy Spirit? Who can help me understand the Bible? How can I receive answers to my prayers? How can I introduce my loved ones and friends to Christ? Following Bill Bright's book, A Handbook for Christian Maturity, this course will present answers to those questions. This class is led by Lori Brady at 9:30 am.

HU 504 Financial Peace

Are you tired of struggling to make ends meet from paycheck to paycheck? Is debt a problem for your family? Do you want to get control of your finances? This course will teach you how to beat debt, build wealth, find bargains, invest for the future, give like never before, and much more.

9:30 am - led by Michael Tursky
 11:00 am - led by Brad Baldwin
 5:30 pm (or TBD) - led by Brad Baldwin

Please join us as we strive to expand the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives through God-based learning!

IN REMEMBRANCE

Elmo M. Evans, C.L.U. 83 of Van Buren passed away Wednesday, January 02, 2013 in a local hospital. He was a manager for Metropolitan Life Insurance Company for over 30 years and a member of Heritage United Methodist Church. He was preceded in death by his wife, Diane Brocchus Evans, a son, Gaylon Evans and a daughter-in-law Marilyn Evans.

He is survived by his three sons, Brian & Mark Evans both of Van Buren, Chris Evans of Bryant; two sisters, Armeda Holmes of Van Buren, Angie Benham of Rogers; eleven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

The name of our church, Heritage, certainly fits Elmo. His parents were members of St. John's (one of the two merging churches that formed Heritage) all their lives and so was Elmo. He grew up just a few blocks from the church and he and Diane, except for a few years when his job took them out of state, made their home just down the street. Their four boys were raised at St. John's and now that heritage is being passed down through Mark and Julie to their two sons. When the merger was proposed in the fall of 1984, Elmo was elected to serve on the merger study committee. Because of his long family ties with St. John's, it was a very difficult decision for him to make, but Elmo felt that the two churches could do much more together than they could separately. After the merger was approved, he served on the building committee to plan and oversee construction of our present facilities. He was very faithful in attending and participating with both committees and his keen business sense was a valuable asset. Elmo felt strongly that the new building needed a baptistry; he felt people should not have to borrow one from another church if they wanted to be immersed. He was disappointed when that had to be eliminated as part of construction cost cuts and was pleased when our portable baptistry was purchased later with memorial funds. As Heritage grew, Elmo felt that we needed a large Family Life Center. Accordingly, the family asks that memorials be given to the Family Life Center. These memorials will be used for our future multi-purpose building.
