PASSOVER: CELEBRATING OUR FREEDOM!

Did you know that all that come to faith in Jesus have been “grafted in” to God’s family tree of salvation and Covenant relationship (the theme of Romans 11)? We have become naturalized citizens in the Commonwealth or Nation of Israel, a teaching clearly set forth in Ephesians 2. We are “no more strangers and foreigners” but “fellow citizens with the saints and of the same body.”

With this in mind, it is only natural that there is a longing in the hearts of many Christians to rediscover the roots of our faith. Gentiles by birth, we have been added to the Nation of Israel by faith in Jesus. As fellow citizens with the saints of Israel, we are entitled to the entire heritage of God’s Chosen People.

Passover is the yearly memorial of the liberation of Israel from slavery in Egypt, the event that set them on the path toward the Promised Land. It is foundational to Judaism, but it is also foundational to Christianity, for if there had been no Passover, there would have been no nation of Israel to have produced Jesus-our own Passover Lamb!

The first Jewish followers of Jesus celebrated the Passover Seder traditions of their day, imbuing each part with additional meaning from the life, death, resurrection, and ascension of Jesus. Should Christians celebrate Passover? When we remain faithful to the Bible, the answer is clear: “Because Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; therefore, let us observe the festival [Passover and Unleavened Bread] ... with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth” (1 Cor. 5:7-8). This directive is from a Christian apostle who even then was still a Jewish rabbi, and it was given to Gentiles. What could possibly be more apparent?

The next question is, How should Christians observe the Passover? Again, the Bible gives a clear answer. What better example could we have than that of our Lord Jesus Himself? According to the Gospels, He celebrated the Passover with His Disciples in the traditional “Seder” (celebration meal) that the sages had prescribed for His time. The core of the modern Seder predates the time of Yeshua and was the order which He employed in the Last Supper.

Louann and I hope that you will build this rich biblical tradition into the core of your own spiritual life, and we want to give you the tools to do it in a simple and fun way! Passover is Friday, April 22nd and we are encouraging you to host a “seder” in your homes for friends, family, life groups, etc. Join us this coming Sunday at 3pm in the Fellowship Hall for a time of teaching and training as we go through the “Hagaddah” (the Passover story) with practical instructions on how to make your own celebration meaningful for friends and family. Don’t miss this opportunity to discover “Christ in the Passover” and to share Him with others who need to find freedom in Him!

BRIGHT LIGHT, BIG CITY...A VERY BRIGHT LIGHT!

In my seventeen years of youth pastoring, I have never experienced a trip at this level. Please, don't get me wrong. We have had some tremendous journeys over the years and have seen life change after life change; but this was different. What we expected, what we planned, what we foresaw didn't even compare to what we experienced and received. SALVATIONS! HEALINGS! FREEDOM! THE RECEIVING OF GIFTS! And so much more! Matthew 5:15 says, "Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house." Light was everywhere! We had an unexpected opportunity to have our cups filled for 2 days prior to ministry in NYC. The LIGHT got to shine ever so brightly! I want to say thank you to all who invested their prayers and gifts towards this trip. An incredible investment was made this year and tremendous payout came and is still coming. We are experiencing a closeness to God and each other that I haven't seen before in a student ministry. I AM SO EXCITED!!! When in NYC, one of the members of the church we visited pulled me aside and said what he saw in our youth was unbelievable. Revival wasn't coming..."you're in it!" Join us this Sunday as we share what God has done and is doing within PULSE, our high school youth ministry. "In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." Matthew 5:16
